History of the Franchise

Last season, 1985-86, was the most successful in the history of the franchise. The Flames defeated Winnipeg (3-0), defending Stanley Cup champions Edmonton (4-3), and St. Louis (4-3) to win their first Campbell Conference Championship; and in the Stanley Cup finals lost, 4-1, to Montreal.

Someone once said, "There is a lot more comes out of the South than just cotton", and for southern Albertans and Canadians alike, truer words were never spoken. On May 21, 1980, the Atlanta Flames became the Calgary Flames; they would no longer play in The Omni (capacity 15,141); they would play in the Stampede Corral (capacity 7,242). They would no longer take to the ice displaying a fiery "A" on their jerseys, but rather thrill the fans with an explosive-looking "C".

Calgary's and the Flames' first ever NHL game in the Corral was against Quebec Nordiques, Oct. 9, 1980, a 5-5 tie. The last game was a 6-5 playoff win over Edmonton, April 18, 1983. In three seasons in the Corral the Flames played a total of 146 games (league, playoff and exhibition), including that thrilling 3-2 win over the Soviet National Team, Jan. 2, 1983. The Flames lost only 28 regular season and 4 playoff games in the Corral.

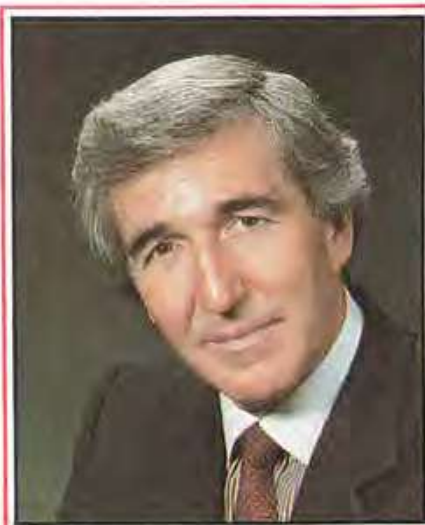

The Flames are in their seventh season of NHL play in Calgary and fourth in the Olympic Saddledome. The Flames and their fans are playing and watching NHL hockey from the best entertainment facility in all of North America. The Olympic Saddledome, adjacent to the Corral, now seats 16,798 for hockey. This state-of-the-art facility opened Saturday, Oct. 15, 1983 when Edmonton edged the Flames, 4-3.

The history of the Flames' franchise unfolded when a group of Georgia businessmen, headed by Tom Cousins, based on solid marketing studies, the existence of a NBA basketball club, and a beautiful new building, applied for and were officially granted an NHL franchise June 6, 1972. The first game at The Omni matched the Flames against the Buffalo Sabres, and after 60 minutes, the Flames had earned their first NHL point: Atlanta 1, Buffalo 1. Ironically, the first game in Calgary also ended in a tie.

Not unlike the means by which the Flaming "C" came to represent the Calgary franchise, the name "Flames" was arrived at also by a contest in Atlanta that attracted some 10,000 entries, with judges from all phases of the media responsible for choosing the most representative nickname. Historically, General Sherman captured the city of Atlanta during the Civil War and burned the city down. The flames that engulfed the entire city were extinguished, and the rebirth of the Georgia capital began.

On May 21, 1980 Nelson Skalbania announced that he and a group of Calgary businessmen had purchased the Atlanta franchise and would move the team to Calgary. Sixteen months later Skalbania sold his interest in the franchise, and ownership of the southern Alberta franchise consists strictly of six Calgary business people. (See pages 4 & 5).

President and General Manager

Cliff Fletcher

There are few men in hockey who are more respected than Calgary Flames' President and General Manager Cliff Fletcher. His draft choices, trades and free agent signings the past few years and during the past several seasons reflect his determination to make the Flames a championship team.

Fletcher has laid the foundation for the club becoming the fastest, strongest, most exciting and best team in the Flames' 14-year history.

A native of Montreal, Fletcher has been the only GM the Flames have had. He started in Atlanta in February 1972 and in the summer of 1980 helped move the franchise to Calgary.

Cliff has introduced the NHL to two cities and three arenas — The Omni in Atlanta and the Stampede Corral and Olympic Saddledome in Calgary.

Making trades and scouting players, although reflecting the highest profile, are only some of the many responsibilities a President-General Manager of a NHL team confronts daily. Hockey has become a multi-million dollar business and a year-round operation.

Hockey is Fletcher's life. It began with the Montreal Junior Canadiens where he served as a scout for 10 years under the guidance of Sam Pollock. NHL expansion opened new avenues for Fletcher, and in 1967 he became Eastern Canada scout for the St. Louis Blues. Two seasons later he was promoted to assistant general manager.

The Blues were in the Stanley Cup finals for three consecutive years (1968, 1969, 1970) while he was in St. Louis. When the NHL expanded in 1972, Cliff was Atlanta's first and only choice for the GM position.

In 17 years with the Blues and Flames, his teams have missed the playoffs only twice, the last time 14 years ago in 1973. As the Flames head man, Fletcher has a 483-445-188 won-lost-tied record and a winning percentage of .517.

One of the highlights of Fletcher's career came in 1981 when he was chosen GM for Team Canada in the Canada Cup Tournament. He has served and chaired many NHL committees.

The Fletchers — Cliff, wife "Boots", son Chuck (a sophomore at Harvard) and daughter Kristy — reside in Mount Royal, Calgary.

Assistant General Manager

Al MacNeil

Now in his fifth season as the Flames' Assistant GM and eighth with the club, Al is recognized for his discerning analysis of hockey talent, on and off the ice. He is responsible for all professional pre-scouting and monitors the progress of all players under contract or drafted by the Flames. He also consults with the coaches on these players.

But that is nothing new for him. This is Al's 25th season in professional hockey and his file is filled with tremendous accomplishments.

He played eight seasons in the NHL as a rugged defenseman with Toronto, Montreal, Chicago, Pittsburgh and the New York Rangers. In 1968 he turned to the coaching ranks with the Houston Apollos, a farm club of the Montreal Canadiens. He moved into the NHL coaching ranks in 1970 and piloted the Canadiens to a Stanley Cup title that season. He is one of a few NHL coaches to win a Stanley Cup in his first year. In 1971-72 he was named GM-Coach of the Nova Scotia Voyageurs in the American League. In six seasons in the AHL, he led the Vees to four first place finishes and three Calder Cup titles. He was an assistant coach for Team Canada in both the 1976 and 1981 Canada Cup Tournaments.

Al joined the Flames in 1979 as head coach, a position he held for three seasons. He was behind the bench when the Flames arrived in Calgary in 1980. During the team's first season in Calgary, he led the club to the Stanley Cup semi-finals.

His four-year NHL coaching record consisted of 295 league games (134-108-53) and a .544 winning percentage.

On September 2, 1982, he officially left coaching to become Cliff Fletcher's first lieutenant.

A Maritimer, Al, his wife Norma and children Allison and Allister live in Calgary, but spend part of their summer in Big Pond, Nova Scotia.

Head Coach

Bob Johnson

After only four seasons in the NHL, coach Bob Johnson directed the Flames to their first Stanley Cup finals.

The 1985-86 season saw "Badger Bob's" club again finish second in the Smythe Division. In the playoffs the Flames set a new NHL record of 22 games. Calgary swept Winnipeg in three; dethroned Edmonton in seven in the upset of the playoffs; beat St. Louis in seven to win their first Campbell Conference Championship; and lost in five to Montreal for the Stanley Cup.

Johnson joined the Flames on June 1, 1982. He is blessed with a tremendously high level of enthusiasm and is a tireless worker. Bob has earned the reputation of being as crafty as a fox. His hard work, positive thinking and enthusiasm is unsurpassed.

He encountered a big change from the head coaching spot at U. of Wisconsin to the NHL. His first season, 1982-83, was a learning experience.

The results became evident during last season's playoffs. Along with the team's playoff success, the team enjoyed a successful regular season, recording 40 wins for the second consecutive season.

Bob had a high rate of success with the Wisconsin Badgers, who captured the NCAA championship three times in Johnson's 15-year reign during which the club won 192 more games than it lost. In 1977 he was NCAA Coach-of-the-Year. His four-year winning record with the Flames is 147-124-49 for a .536 percentage. Johnson started the 1986-87 season needing only 10 more wins to become the Flames' winningest coach.

There has never been a more positive person in the NHL. Badger's approach to the game has rubbed off on the players and the Flames have never had a better attitude.

Although he played some minor professional baseball, hockey is Johnson's number one love. He spends much of the off-season conducting hockey schools in the United States. He coached Team USA to a second place finish in Canada Cup '84; served as an assistant coach in the 1981 Canada Cup tournament; and he also has coached the U.S. National team on four other occasions and the U.S. Olympic team once. His career began in '56 at Warroad, MN high school; then college at Colorado in '63 and three years later became Wisconsin's first hockey coach.

The Johnson's are a hockey family. Bob's wife, Martha, follows the Flames religiously. One son, Mark, plays for New Jersey Devils, while another, Peter, is an assistant coach at Cornell University.

Coaches

Bob Murdoch

Pierre Page

One of the reasons for the development of the young Flames' players the past few seasons has been the work of assistant coach Bob Murdoch. After 12 seasons in the NHL, Murdoch hung up his skates after the 1982-83 season to become a full-time assistant under head coach Bob Johnson.

He played 757 regular-season games in the NHL plus 69 playoff encounters. He played on a Stanley Cup winner with Montreal in 1970-71 (he was a rookie) and again in 1972-73. Later in his career Murdoch toiled in Los Angeles, Atlanta and Calgary. In his 12 year NHL career and four seasons as an assistant coach, he has been in the Stanley Cup playoffs every year. He participated in his third Stanley Cup final this past spring.

A defensive defenseman, Murdoch at one time held all of the L.A. Kings' offensive career scoring records by a defenseman. However, they were all broken in 1982-83 by Larry Murphy, now with Washington. Murdoch recorded 171 points (41 goals and 130 assists) in his six seasons with the Kings. In 12 NHL seasons, Murdoch played in 757 games, scored 60 goals and added 218 assists. He served as player-coach for the Flames during the 1981-82 season.

Bob is a full-time Calgary resident.

Pierre returned to Calgary as an assistant coach with the Flames last season (1985-86) after three seasons as Coach-GM of the Flames' farm team in Denver (CHL) for two seasons one season in Moncton (AHL).

He has been a factor in the maturing of Flames' players Al MacInnis, Joel Otto, Mike Vernon and Neil Sheehy. Pierre is the Flames' video expert.

This will be his fourth season in Calgary and seventh with the Flames. He was Al MacNeil's assistant during the Flames' first two seasons, 1980-81 and 1981-82.

A native of Lachute, Quebec, Pierre started his coaching career at Dalhousie U. in Halifax where he transformed the Tigers into Canada's No. 2 college team in 1978-79, winning the Maritime conference championship for the first time in 60 years. He also assisted with the AHL Nova Scotia Voyageurs.

He worked with the Canadian Olympic team '80 and Team Canada in the '81 Canada Cup Tournament.

Pierre, his wife Donna and daughter Lauren, who are full-time Calgarians, spent part of the summer in Halifax and Colorado.

Coaches

Terry Crisp

He is in his second season as coach and general manager of the Moncton Golden Flames, Calgary's No. One farm team.

Last season, the 43-year-old Crisp led Moncton to a third place finish in the American Hockey League's Northern Division. The Golden Flames defeated the Maine Mariners in the first round of AHL playoffs, then lost to the Adirondack Red Wings (AHL Champions) in the semi-finals.

Cliff Fletcher, Flames' President and General Manager, has known Terry for a long time. "I knew him when he played for me in St. Louis (late '60s). He is a winner who demonstrates all the qualities I like to see in a person, particularly as a head coach, and entrusted with developing our young prospects," said Fletcher.

Crisp started his professional career in 1963-64 with Minneapolis of the Central Hockey League. He graduated to the NHL's Boston Bruins in 1965. Over a three season span, 1967-70, as a member of the expansion St. Louis Blues, he participated in three consecutive Stanley Cup finals.

Terry played 11 seasons in the NHL. His finest moments came as a Philadelphia Flyer when they became the first expansion club to win the Stanley Cup in 1974 and 1975.

In six seasons as coach of Sault Ste. Marie Greyhounds (OHL) they won three divisional and league titles, had a 33-0 home record in 1984-85, and he was Coach-of-the-year twice.

Glenn Hall

It was mid-way through the 1983-84 season that the Flames added a new position and one that produced immediate results. The acquisition of Hall-of-Famer Glenn Hall as goaltending consultant has paid dividends. With Rejean Lemelin among the League's top goaltenders and the emergence of Mike Vernon, Hall is recognized as an outstanding goaltending coach.

Coach Bob Johnson is a supporter of Hall. "I was never a goaltender and neither was Bob Murdoch or Pierre Page. Glenn can relate with the goalies much better than we can. He has made a solid contribution to the team.

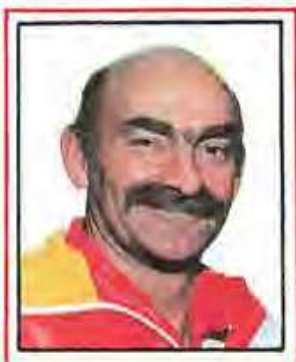

"Glenn has assisted the Flames' goalies, pointing out errors they were making as well as giving them a reading on shooters around the league and how to play them."

The Edmonton native was a bonafide superstar during his NHL playing days with Detroit, Chicago and St. Louis, winning the Vezina Trophy and gaining acclaim as one of the NHL's all-time great goalkeepers.

Mr. Goalie, a title he earned with his great goaltending, recorded several league and playoff records in his 19-year NHL career. He played in 906 games from 1952-53 through 1970-71. His record of 502 consecutive games (1955-56 through first 12 games of 1962-63) may never be broken!

He is a member of the NHL and Alberta Sports Hall-of-Fame. Glenn and his wife Pauline make their home in Stony Plain, a suburb of Edmonton.

Trainers

Jim Murray

Jim (Bearcat) Murray is a vital part of Calgary's hockey history. He is in his seventh season as the Flames' trainer.

'Bear's' ability to react instantly to on-ice injuries is well documented. Many times he has reached an injured Flame player before play has stopped.

A native of nearby Okotoks, 'Bearcat' is versed in Calgary's hockey past. He played prior to serving as trainer for Scotty Munro's junior Centennials in the Western Hockey League and for the Cowboys in the WHA.

'Bearcat', his wife Shirley and sons Allan and Danny, make their home in Calgary.

Bobby Stewart

Bobby Stewart, the Flames' equipment manager, is in his 14th season with the club. Only President-GM Cliff Fletcher has been with the Flames longer.

Bobby, who has been around hockey teams since he was growing up as a 15-year-old in Montreal, is responsible for the sticks, skates, pads, helmets, sweaters, pants and all the equipment needs of the players and coaching staff. It's a never-ending job, but one he revels in.

He joined the Flames in Atlanta in '73 and moved with the club to Calgary in July 1980.

Bobby, his wife Sherri and son Josh, make their home in Calgary.

NHL's Look For 1986-87

The National Hockey League is in its 70th regular season with Conference and Division alignment and an unbalanced schedule that will focus attention upon some of the greatest rivalries in sport.

CLARENCE CAMPBELL CONFERENCE

Smythe Division

CALGARY FLAMES

Edmonton Oilers
Los Angeles Kings
Vancouver Canucks
Winnipeg Jets

Norris Division

Chicago Black Hawks
Detroit Red Wings
Minnesota North Stars
St. Louis Blues
Toronto Maple Leafs

PRINCE OF WALES CONFERENCE

Patrick Division

New Jersey Devils
New York Islanders
New York Rangers
Philadelphia Flyers
Pittsburgh Penguins
Washington Capitals

Adams Division

Boston Bruins
Buffalo Sabres
Hartford Whalers
Montreal Canadiens
Quebec Nordiques

UNBALANCED SCHEDULE

Each of the 21 teams will play an 80-game schedule, with those teams in the Smythe, Patrick and Adams Divisions having eight games (four home, four away) against each of their Divisional opponents, plus three games against each of the remaining 16 teams in the League. In the case of the three games against the remaining clubs, teams will play two home, one away or vice-versa, alternating the extra home game each year.

The six clubs in the Patrick Division — New Jersey, New York Islanders, New York Rangers, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Washington — will play each other seven times with three games against each of the remaining 15 teams. The home ice differential will be alternated each season.

STANLEY CUP PLAYOFFS FORMAT

At the conclusion of the regular schedule, the top four finishers in each of the Divisions will qualify for the Stanley Cup playoffs.

The Divisional Semi-Final round features the first place club opposing the fourth place team and second versus third in a best-of-seven series. The winners of each series will advance to a best-of-seven Divisional Final series, with the team with the highest standing during the regular season receiving home-ice advantage.

The four divisional winners will meet in a best-of-seven Conference Championship. It will be the Smythe Division versus the Norris Division for the Campbell Conference championship, while the Patrick Division will oppose the Adams Division winner for the Prince of Wales Conference title. The Conference champions will meet in a best-of-seven final series for the Stanley Cup.

In the Conference championships, the home ice advantage will be gained by the team which secured more points during the regular season.

For Stanley Cup play, home ice advantage will go to the team which secured more points during the regular season than its opponent. The final series will be a 2-2-1-1-1 format.

LADY BYNG MEMORIAL TROPHY

An annual award "to the player adjudged to have exhibited the best type of sportsmanship and gentlemanly conduct combined with a high standard of playing ability." Winner selected in poll by Professional Hockey Writers' Association at the end of the regular schedule. History: Lady Byng, wife of Canada's Governor-General at the time, presented the Lady Byng Trophy in 1925. After Frank Boucher of New York Rangers won the award seven times in eight seasons, he was given the trophy to keep and Lady Byng donated another trophy in 1936. After Lady Byng's death in 1949, the National Hockey League presented a new trophy, changing the name to Lady Byng Memorial Trophy.
